Company Profile (description of goods and services we can share with our membership)

Categories of Membership

General Contractor & Sub Members:
Investment Category 4.0 - 14.0

Firms in all types of construction and/or supplying labor working on site; general and specialty contractors, including installers.

Supplier Members:
Investment Category 2.10 - 2.30

Firms supplying materials but provide no on-site labor beyond delivery.

Associate Members:
Investment Category 1.00

Firms providing services to the construction industry but no materials or labor, such as attorneys, architects, insurance, etc.

Chapter Only Members:

Available to any firm that is a regular member of another ABC Chapter and becomes a member under the same name in the Greater Michigan Chapter for the purpose of receiving services. Annual investments are computed on the same basis as regular chapter members, less National investments (approximately 1/3 of the published investments schedule). Members in good standing with a home chapter in Michigan will also be exempt from paying duplicate State investments. The investments category will be determined by construction volume in Michigan.

ANNUAL INVESTMENT SCHEDULE

Annual investments are based on the company's volume the preceding year. Membership investments are payable for one year in advance at the time of enrollment; thereafter, each January.

ABC investments are not deductible as a charitable contribution for federal income tax purposes but may be partially deductible as a business expense. ABC estimates that for 2018, 17% of your investments are not deductible because they are related to lobby activities on behalf of members. Your payment includes both state and national investments. Included in your ABC investment is a subscription to both the ABC National newsletter, Construction Executive Magazine, ABC of Michigan's Merit Minute Magazine and the Chapter's newsletter.
